Criterion 1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

KH Government Degree College, Dharmavaram, has been contributing to the academic needs of the students for the last 36 years offering UG courses. Curricular aspects of courses offered by the institute are governed by the proceedings and guidelines of Andhra Pradesh State Council for Higher Education, Hyderabad and Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Ananthapuramu.

The curriculum aims at imparting global competencies to the students. The existing departments plan suitable academic activities so that the content prescribed in the curriculum is properly delivered to the students. The same is reflected in the Minutes Book of the concerned departments and the Action Plans designed by the Institution, especially IQAC.

The academic calendar prepared by the Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education (APSCHE), Hyderabad will be circulated to all the State Universities and the same is scrupulously followed by the Institution as and when it is circulated by the affiliating Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Ananthapuramu.

The Faculty members prepare Annual Curricular Plan at the beginning of every academic year so that they may complete the syllabus, plan the activities properly. They make the entries of the topics taught in the classroom, methodology adopted while teaching the content, curricular and co-curricular activity planned, if any, pertaining to the topic, and other information in a Teaching Diary. Besides these, they even prepare Teaching Notes that immensely helps the students as well the faculty in delivering lessons meaningfully.

Synopsis: Unit I – Listening Skills

Importance of Listening

Listening is the mother of all skills. It is the first skill that the child acquires without any teaching or help. It is a receptive skill that makes people to receive, interpret, and react to the messages sent by the sender. It requires thoughtful, constructive, purposeful, and critical powers of mind. It is always purposeful. It is the most important and challenging skill that helps in improving one's own communication.

Benefits of Listening:

1. Listening to speakers will show your respect for them.
2. It clearly shows that you yearn for understanding his/her point of view.
3. Listening helps in maintaining a good relationship between the listener and the speaker.
4. Listening facilitates focusing on the discussion and retaining information.
5. Listening will allow the speaker to correct if s/he doesn't express the idea clearly.
6. Listening helps the listener to express his/her ideas.
7. Listening provides additional information that can be used in future speeches.

Factors that Assist Listening: Listening is a complex mental activity. It is an integral part of the communicative process. There are many factors involved in a successful act of communication. These factors are:

1. The mental capabilities of the listener; The listener's verbal competence, i.e., his/her knowledge of the language and its nuances.
2. The motivation and interest of the listener;
3. The context, particularly when the speaker is unknown and the subject is also unknown.
