2021-22

Summary of the Students' Feedback Analysis:

Based on the Students' feedback analysis, the following are the observations:

1. Most of the students felt that the assignments must be included in the textbook so that they can practice and improve their knowledge. Some felt that the English textbook must be converted into a workbook for more practice.
2. The design of the courses in terms of extra learning or self-learning is insufficient.
3. The topics that bring employment should be included in the curriculum.

Summary of the Parents' Feedback Analysis:

Based on the Parents' feedback analysis, the following are the observations:

1. The Management should introduce new and demanding courses for the welfare of the students.
2. The students must be taken on field trips, especially in the final year.
3. The computer laboratory must be given an internet connection to enrich the knowledge of the students.
4. Technology-Enhanced teaching should be taken up by all the faculty to create an interesting learning atmosphere in the classroom.

Action Taken Report:

Based on the feedback given by the students and the parents, the following actions are taken:

1. Decided to apply for new courses like Mathematics, Physics, Computer Science (MPCs).
2. Steps are taken to increase the bandwidth speed of the Internet.
3. Instructed all the faculty to switch from the traditional mode of teaching to the blended-mode of teaching.
4. Campaigning should be done to increase the admissions as well.
