

Dated: 13-06-2017

Resolutions

The faculty of the Department and IQAC Coordinator have met in the Vice Principal's Chamber to discuss academic issues and other activities that should be taken up during the academic year 2017-18 (Semester I and Semester III) and take resolutions accordingly.

1. The Head, Department of English, has expressed her opinion stating that the students who get Admission into I Year must be taught the importance of English language and the necessity of acquiring basic skills such as LSRW devoting at least 3 to 4 hours as and when the Classwork starts.
2. Dr. T. Jeevan Kumar opined that the classwork must be divided into 4:1. The teacher should teach the content in the first four hours while the remaining one hour, especially during weekends, must be allocated to language learning activities so that the learners can improve their speaking skills.
3. The Department will prepare material and distribute it to the students at half-price keeping the financial conditions of the learners.
